

McHugh, Matthew

Cpl. Matthew McHugh
Calls Wife While
Visiting Switzerland

Cpl. Matthew McHugh, stationed with the occupation forces in Austria, telephoned his wife, the former Miss Wanda Szulborski, 301 East Broad St., while furloughing in Switzerland.

Cpl. McHugh went overseas with the 330th Infantry Division 14 months ago. He fought with Patton's Third Army in the battles for the Rhine and Czechoslovakia, and has since been stationed throughout Europe.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McHugh, 1423 Chelsea Ave., he was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company at the time of his induction, April 20, 1944. He completed his basic training at Camp Wolters, Tex., and was graduated from the communications school at Fort Benning, Ga., before going overseas.

According to his telephone conversation, Cpl. McHugh expects to be with his wife and son, Matthew Jr., next month.
