Brothers Meet

T/5 Richard E. Stauffer, home on furlough while enroute from Camp Polk, La., to Fort Dix, N. J., met his brother, ex-Sgt. Douglas Stauffer, whom he hadn't seen for 20 months.

Ex-Sgt. Douglas was recently discharged after serving in the ETO. He was last stationed at Camp Philip Morris, France, serving as company clerk with the Second Special Service Company.

T/5 Richard, with the Signal Corps, was formerly employed as a radio operator by the Bethlehem Steel Company. His brother was also with the Steel Company prior to entering the Army. The sons of Mr. and Mrs. Titus L. Stauffer, 1703 W. Union Blvd., they are both graduates of Bethlehem High School.
