

Matz, Norman F.

Ferries Bethlehemites Back To States

Coast Guardsman Norman F. Matz (left), Seaman first class, of 1515 Chelsea Avenue, Bethlehem, crew member of a Coast Guard manned transport in the Atlantic which is ferrying his home-townsmen back to the States from the ETO. From left to right, the returning veterans are: 1st Lieut.

Louis A. Sefranek of 1204 East Third Street, a prisoner of war of the Nazis for 14 months; 2nd Lieut. Leonard Luckenbach of 402 North New Street, and 1st Lieut. William J. Reslie of 319 Washington Avenue. The latter two are pilots in the Army Transport Command.

Jul. 6, 1945