

Taylor, Bernice

Bernice Taylor Now a Sergeant

Bernice C. Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Taylor, Bethlehem, R. D. 4, who was made a corporal technician on May 1, took another jump up the promotion ladder on June 1 when she received the rank of sergeant.

The day of the latter promotion also marked her birthday anniversary. Officers of her Norfolk, Va., WAAC unit, surprised her with a party, replete with a cake and candles. She was presented with her new ranks at this time.

A huge box of all kinds of cookies, candy, sandwiches and other items arrived from her friends in Bethlehem. A cake arrived from her mother, and various gifts were presented by her colleagues.

"This is the grandest birthday I ever had," she was quoted as saying.

June 5, 1943