

Reussner, Jr., George H.

GEORGE H. REUSSNER, JR.,
MADE STAFF SERGEANT

— FEB 19 1943 —

Son of City Councilman Rose
Through Ranks in Past Year.

George H. Reussner, Jr., son of Councilman George H. Reussner, 226 East Fifth Street, has just been promoted from sergeant to the rank of staff sergeant, effective February 2, and transferred to the base weather station at the new air field at Pierre, South Dakota.

STAFF SGT. G. H. REUSSNER, Jr.

Staff Sergeant Reussner, who entered the U. S. Army just one year ago this month with a contingent from Local Board No. 1, has progressed from private to first class private, corporal and sergeant. He is a graduate of Liberty High School in 1936 and Lehigh University in 1940.

At Lehigh he served two years with the Reserve Officers Training Corps. He was employed for two years after graduation at the Bethlehem Steel Company. He has served at weather stations in Missouri, Arizona and was at Chanute Field, Illinois, when he received his promotion and from which point he was transferred to Pierre.

February 19, 1943