

Moyer, James K.

J. K. Moyer, Now Sergeant,
Observes Birthday, 5 1943

James K. Moyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Moyer of 1406 Broadway, Bethlehem, will celebrate his 22nd birthday Saturday at his post of duty with the Anti-Aircraft of the U. S. Army at Nashville, Tenn., where he is engaged in advanced maneuvers.

Not only will young Moyer mark a birthday, but he is also the proud owner of three new stripes—he's a sergeant now, just three weeks after receiving his corporal's chevrons. Sgt. Moyer entered the Army March 20 of this year. He trained at Camp Davis, Fort Fisher and Camp Butler, N. C., where he was made a corporal, and recently was sent to Nashville. He holds sharpshooter and marksmanship medals and is attached to the personnel section as assistant personnel sergeant major.

Sgt. Moyer is a graduate of Fountain Hill High School and of Bethlehem Business College. A brother, Louis, is also in the Army at Ft. Eustis, Va.
