

Miss Ilkovich Becomes Bride Of Cpl. Muhr

NOV 27 1944

At a double ring ceremony yesterday afternoon in the parish house of St. John Capistrano's Church, Miss Margaret Mary Ilkovich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ilkovich, of 1320 East Fifth Street, and Cpl. Walter William Muhr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Muhr, of 1324 Broadway, were married by the Rev. Joseph Reseterics. Yesterday also marked the 40th wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an aqua dress and a corsage of gardenias. Miss Julia Gal, her only attendant, wore a ruby-red dress and a gardenia corsage. John Segata was the bridegroom's best man.

A reception followed at the Beethoven Maennerchor, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip. The bride will return to reside with her parents and to continue as supervisor in the Sondra Undergarment Company, Allentown. Cpl. Muhr at the conclusion of his leave will report to Fort Devens, Mass.

Mrs. Muhr attended Bethlehem High School. She is a member of St. Johns' choir, and the Sodality of B. V. M. and is active in the South Side Women's Bowling League.

Cpl. Muhr was graduated from Bethlehem High School in 1931. Upon completion of his high school, he was employed in his father's meat establishment. Prior to his induction he was active in bowling, high school and city league baseball.
