

Branch, George

Graduated

JUL 22 1944

Staff Sgt. George Branch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Branch of William Street, Pen Argyl, recently was graduated from the Electrical Instrument School of the Sperry Gyroscope Company, New York City, where he was a student for the U. S. Army Service.

After graduating from the school, he spent a furlough with his parents, after which he went to Camp Davis, N. C., for further work.

He was one of the first Pen Argyl young men to enlist prior to the war. He enlisted on June 25, 1940. He attended the Pen Argyl High School.
