

O'Connell, Patrick J.

Given Promotion

JUL 21 1943

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connell of 310 Summit Street, have received word that their son, Patrick J. O'Connell, recently was promoted to private first class and is "somewhere in India."

A graduate of Liberty High School, class of '41, he had been employed as an inspector by the Bethlehem Steel Company before his induction.

He received his basic training at Camp Lee, Va., and was later transferred to Camp Holabrid, Md., where he entered an ordnance school. Five weeks ago he started the trip overseas.
