Many sessions speak to matters on our table as we join the nation reckoning with race

Good opportunity to be informed about issues of national and local relevance

The 2020 NCC Social Justice and Peace Conference October 13-15

“Our focus this year is on racial justice, specifically the intersections of race and policing, the criminal justice system, incarceration, climate justice, voting, democracy, immigration, education, and trauma. We are spotlighting local activists and organizations fighting for social justice in the Lehigh Valley, including, among many others: LV Black Lives Matter, LV Stands UP, Action Town Activists, and our local chapters of the ACLU and NAACP.”
