

Kish, Michael J.

Advances

FEB 17 1944

Recently advanced to the rank of Sergeant in Uncle Sam's Army, Michael J. Kish, of 1619 Columbia Street, is now stationed somewhere in England. He was called for induction in January, 1942, and received his basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. In August, 1942, he was sent to England from Indian-town Gap. He took part in the African invasion and throughout the whole African campaign. Then he was in the Sicilian invasion and was in the division that took many German and Italian prisoners. He was formerly employed in the Lehigh plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

February 17, 1944