

Covino, Peter

Advances

Recently promoted to seaman first class, Peter Covino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Covino, 641 Atlantic Street, is celebrating his eighteenth birthday today. He enlisted in the Navy, May 3, 1943, and took his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. Three months from the time of his enlistment he was sent "somewhere in Australia." He is in a Repair Unit as a ship fitter. His brother-in-law, Primo DiConcetto, is also in the Navy and has just completed his boot training at Sampson.
