

Roberts, Charles H.

LOCAL SOLDIER TAKING BASIC PILOT TRAINING

Chico Field, Calif., Dec. 14 (Special to Globe-Times). — Pennsylvania is represented among those completing basic pilot training in the U. S. Army Air Forces at Chico Army Flying School by Charles H. Roberts, 20, of 259 Ninth Avenue, Bethlehem.

He is a graduate of Bethlehem High School with the class of 1940, where he was a prominent musician. Following the footsteps of his father, who was a top sergeant in the last war, he enlisted in the Air Corps December 18, 1940.

Cadets Roberts was accepted for flight training June 3, 1942, and received primary flight training at Sequoia Field, Visalia, Calif. During his hitch in the Air Corps, he was stationed at Maxwell Field, Ala., Harding Field, La., and Davis Monthan Field, Ariz.

DEC 14 1942

December 14, 1942