

MacKenzie, John

Visits Wife At Northampton

Lieut. John MacKenzie, USNR, has returned to Virginia after spending a seven-day leave with his wife, the former Helen Pettock at Northampton.

He assumed a new assignment, having been made instructor of naval officers in the Norfolk Naval base. Formerly of the Merchant Marine, Lieutenant MacKenzie volunteered for service and was commissioned an ensign in 1940. He was assistant engineer on the USS West Point, Navy transport, and for the past two years served as chief engineer aboard a destroyer. He was accompanied by Mrs. MacKenzie on his return.

November 8, 1943