

Adams, William P.

All Servicemen In Family Home For Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Adams, 535 Washington Avenue, were one of the fortunate Bethlehem families to have all the members of the family serving in the armed forces home for Christmas Day.

Lieutenant Commander William P. Adams, came in from the west coast after spending three years in the Pacific area. He left today to return to his base. Miss Catherine Adams, third class petty officer in the WAVES, stationed at Pensacola, Florida will visit with her family until January 2. James Adams, seaman first class, stationed at the Coast Guard Radio School, Atlantic City arrived home Christmas Eve and left again on Sunday.

Joseph Adams, a senior at Liberty High School, recently received his appointment as cadet to the Pennsylvania Naval Academy and will leave sometime in February. Upon completion of his training he will be commissioned an Ensign in the USNR.

Dec 28, 1943