

Grosset, John P.

Lt. (jg) John P. Grosset, USNR, 56 W. Garrison Street, Bethlehem, son of Emil A. and the late Catherine Brauchle Grosset has been awarded a Purple Heart for a slight injury he received in the invasion of the Philippine Islands in January. At present he is stationed on an aircraft carrier somewhere in the Southwest Pacific.

Lt. (jg) Grosset is in his third year of naval service and had previously been stationed at Pensacola and in the Aleutian Islands. He is a graduate of Liberty High School, Moravian College for Men and has done graduate work at New York University. The Purple Heart has been sent to his family.

April 28, 1945