

Stauffer, Max

SEABEE ON LEAVE

Max Stauffer, S. 1-c, who has been stationed at Port Hueneme, Calif., for the past six months, is home on a ten-day leave. At present Seaman Stauffer is working in the dispersing office at Port Hueneme.

Father of a nine-months-old son, John Maxwell Stauffer, and husband of the former Dorothea Kissner, Seaman Stauffer was formerly employed in the cost department of the Bethlehem Steel Company until he entered the Seabees in October, 1943. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Stauffer, reside at 640 Highland Avenue.

August 3, 1944