

Shultz, William H.

Wilson Borough Soldier
Gets Army Discharge

Pfc. William H. Shultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Shultz, 2241 Freemansburg Avenue, Wilson Borough, was discharged from the U. S. Army Saturday at Fort Dix, N. J., with 132 points.

Pfc. Shultz served with the First Division of the First Army in France and Germany since D-Day. He received the Purple Heart for wounds suffered in action in Germany, the ETO ribbon with eight battle stars, the Silver Star and the Bronze Star awards. Before entering the service, he was employed at the Inserting and Mailing Machine Company in Phillipsburg, N. J.

June 27, 1945