Rev. E. A. Kucharic, rector of St. Andrew's Church, North Catasauqua, officiated at the marriage of Corporal Technician William Gasdaska, Bethlehem, and Margaret Behum, Catasauqua, at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The bride was attired in a white taffeta gown, with finger tip veil and crown of orange blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Mary Behum, wore an old rose gown, with matching accessories, and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. The best man was John Gasdaska, a brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Behum, 215 Church Street, Catasauqua. The couple will spend a short honeymoon in New York.

The bride is a graduate of the Catasauqua High School. She is employed by the Universal Pants Company, Northampton.

A son of John and the late Mary Gasdaska of Bethlehem, the bridegroom was graduated from Bethlehem High School and before entering the armed service conducted a store here. He is a corporal technician in the medical corps and is stationed at Fort Meade.
