

Vallera, Anthony D.

Sgt. Anthony Valera 1945
Wounded In France

Fighting with the 80th Infantry, "somewhere in France," Sergeant Anthony D. Vallera, 23-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Valera of 217 West Goepp Street, was wounded in action, according to a telegram from the War Department, received by his parents.

A former student at Liberty High School, he entered the armed forces in September 1942, received his preliminary training at Camp Forest, Nashville, Tenn., and has been overseas since July of last year.
