

Young, Earl H.
Roger W.

Brothers Advance
AUG 8 1944

EARL H. YOUNG
ROGERS W. YOUNG

Two brothers, serving Uncle Sam overseas, were advanced in rank at practically the same time, according to word received this morning by their mother, Mrs. Laura Young, 48 East Broad Street. The two boys are Earl H. Young, promoted to the rank of Ship Fitter Second Class, now stationed with the Seabees in New Guinea. His wife is the former Mary Kallman. His daughter, Sandra Lee, celebrated her first birthday Friday. His birthday occurred on Saturday. Roger W. Young is now a Coxswain. He has been in service for two years and is now stationed with the Coast Guards somewhere in the South Pacific.

Aug. 8, 1944