

Baker, Donald Hudson

Killed In Italy

NOV 27 1943

Donald Hudson Baker, who lived at 6 North New Street, Bethlehem, for a year, was killed in Italy November 5, while serving with the infantry, it has been reported officially. He had been employed in the pipe shop of Bethlehem Steel Company. A brother, Charles H. Baker, lives at 921 Birch Road, Hellertown. Also surviving are his father, Raymond Baker of Philadelphia, and a sister, Mrs. Ross Heard, of Baltimore, Md.

Nov 27, 1943