

Shook, Donald J.

FEB 4 1944 Brothers Promoted

Mr. and Mrs. George Shook of 301 North Main Street, Bangor, have just received word that their son, Donald J. Shook, of the United States Navy, has completed his training at the Sound School, Key West, Florida, and has been advanced to the rank of Third Class Petty Officer. He is presently awaiting further assignment to duty. They also received word that another son, Merlin Shook, has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant Technician. He is stationed at Camp White, Oregon. Recently he competed on the firing range and won second honors when he scored six points over and above the expert rating.
