

Reynolds, John V.

Becomes Cadet

MAR 21 1944

Word has been received from the U. S. Army Air Base at Santa Ana, Calif., that John Verne Reynolds has been made an air cadet, classified for training as a Navigator in the Army Air Force.

Cadet Reynolds is the husband of the former Ann Marie Eddinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Eddinger, 1024 Delaware Avenue, and son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Reynolds, 1130 Sioux Street, Fountain Hill.

He entered the service August 30, 1943, and received his basic training at Greensboro, N. C., later being sent to Moorhead, Minn. He was graduated as an aviation cadet last February 11 and then sent to the Classification Center at Santa Ana. After completing his course there he will receive his wings and be commissioned a second lieutenant.

March 21, 1944