

Harris, Robert M

QUALIFIES AS EXPERT

Pfc. Robert M. Harris of Pen Argyl, qualified today as an expert B-24 Bomber mechanic upon his graduation from Kessler Field airplane mechanics school. Pfc. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harris, 410 Mountain Avenue, Pen Argyl, was one of scores of soldier-students who finished the course of approximately 17 weeks today. He will either be assigned to duty servicing one of the great four-engined Liberators, sent to a factory school for advanced study in some phase of their maintenance, or sent to one of the Army Air Forces Training Command's aerial gunnery schools to learn to shoot Axis fighters out of the skies.
