

Kier Jr, John H.

DAY—Mrs. John H. Kier, Jr.

CHRISTINE LAGOUIROS NAVY ENSIGN'S BRIDE

United in Marriage With John
H. Kier, Jr., at High
Noon Today.

In the Old Moravian Chapel at high noon today, Miss Christine Lagouros, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lagouros, 536½ Seneca Street, and Ensign John H. Kier, Jr., U. S. Naval Reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kier, of Lexington, Miss., were married by the Rev. Earl Christianson, pastor of Edgeboro Moravian Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white eyelet afternoon dress, white hat and a corsage of red and white rosebuds. Miss Lee Shields, her only attendant, wore turquoise blue chambray suit, with white trimming and a corsage of mixed flowers.

Ensign John H. Jones was the bridegroom's best man.

Dr. T. Edgar Shields, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and, in a brief recital, "Sewdsh Wedding March" (Sodermann); "Animato" (Coleridge-Taylor); "Traumerle" (Schumann); and "Wedding Intermezzo" (Nevin).

A wedding luncheon was served in the Hotel Bethlehem for the bridal party and members of the immediate families. The bridegroom's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Kier and Miss Patsy Kier of Lexington, came up for wedding. Ensign and Mrs. Kier left on a short wedding trip to New York and on their return, will reside temporarily at 536½ Seneca Street.

The bride is a graduate of the Moravian Preparatory School and Bethlehem Business College and was employed as secretary to the manager of St. Luke's Hospital. The bridegroom is a graduate of Southwestern University, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma social fraternity and Omicron Delta Kappa and Chi Beta Phi, national honorary fraternities. At present, he is taking the Diesel course at Lehigh University.

August 1, 1942