

Ottinger, David E.

Fountain Hill Soldier Weds Easton Girl

MAY 5 1944

The marriage of Miss Jayne Virginia Harlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Harlan, of Easton, and Staff Sergeant David Edwin Ottinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ottinger, 65 Warren Street, Fountain Hill, took place last evening at 8 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran Church, Easton. The Rev. Henry Cornehlson officiated.

Mr. Harlan gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white slipper satin, with a fingertip veil held by a tiara of seed pearls and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Arlene M. Harlan, a cousin of the bride, as her maid of honor, was gowned in pink satin and net and carried an arm bouquet of snapdragons and blue sweet peas. Mrs. Samuel Horne Ottinger, as bridesmaid, was similarly gowned in blue and carried pink snapdragons and sweet peas.

Francis C. Hoch, A. B., Merchant Marines, of Bethlehem, was the bridegroom's best man, and William K. Harlan, Jr., of Easton, and Francis P. Boyer, naval midshipman stationed at the University of Pennsylvania, were ushers.

Henry Eichlin, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Esther Yerger, the soloist. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, cibotium ferns and white snapdragons.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where she will reside for the duration and which was made Spring-like for the occasion with a profusion of forsythia and cherry blossoms.

The bride is a graduate of Easton High School and Muhlenberg Hospital School of Nursing. The bridegroom is a graduate of Fountain Hill High School and of the radio and gunnery schools of the Army Air Corps. He is assigned to a bomb squadron and is stationed at Muroc, Calif.
