Receives Stripe

Two brothers, Nondas and Theodore Halkias, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Halkias, 438 East Fairview Street, are home on furloughs from their respective army camps. Nondas has been promoted to private first class. The brothers, both athletes and former Liberty High students, were unaware the other would be granted a furlough at the time he came home. Nondas is stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C., having been in the service since February, 1943. He attended Moravian College. Theodore is stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo., having entered the service in May, 1943. He attended Muhlenberg. Their father is president of the Lehigh Chapter, Order of Ahepa, Allentown.
