PFC. GEORGE K. MOFFITT

Pfc. George Moffitt Slightly Wounded In German Action

Mrs. Kathryn M. Lyman-berger has received word that her brother, Pfc. George A. Moffitt, was slightly wounded in Germany on April 10. The young Medical Corpsman will observe his 20th birthday anniversary on May 5 and has been overseas since November, 1944.

Pfc. Moffitt, the son of Mrs. Anna Moffitt, of Glendon, formerly of this city, entered the service in July, 1943, and received his training at Fort Bragg, N. C. Prior to entering the service he resided at the home of his sister.
