

Sneckenburg, Peter

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Pvt. Peter Sneckenburg spent a 14-day furlough with his wife and two children. He became the proud father of a seven-pound son recently. He was employed in the Bethlehem Steel before entering service in April 13, 1943. Pvt. Sneckenburg is stationed in Camp Fannin, Texas. He won medal awards for expert markmanship and rifleman.

October 6, 1943