

Fischer, Arthur H.

Made a Corporal
NOV 10 1943

Pictured here is Arthur H. Fischer, son of Elizabeth and the late Ralph Fischer of Bethlehem, who recently was advanced to corporal. Corp. Fischer will celebrate his 19th birthday Armistice Day, November 11. He entered the Army April 24 and received his basic training at Ft. Bragg, N. C., where he won the sharpshooter award in rifle. He is with the Field Artillery in New England at present. Before entering the service he was employed at the local Signal Corps experiment station.
