

Hrkach, Anthony C.
John
Joseph

Missing

Corporal Anthony C. Hrkach, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hrkach, Bethlehem, R. 4, was listed as missing in action since July 22nd while in active combat duty over Yugoslavia, according to word received recently from the War Department.

Cpl. Hrkach enlisted in the Army Air Corps in November, 1943, received training at Miami Beach, Fla., and Langley Field, Va., and became a turret gunner on a B-24, Liberator Bomber. He left for overseas duty, July 2.

He has two brother in the service: Lieut. John Hrkach, now stationed at a Greenville Army Air Base, following 17 months of active service in the Burma, India, China area; and Aviation Cadet, Joseph Hrkach, stationed at Maxwell Field, Ala.

August 19, 1944