

Bush, Mae E.

Wind Gap Girl Manages Berlin Post Exchange

BERLIN ^{APR 4 1946} T/4 Mae E. Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Bush, who lives at Wind Gap, is doing an extra fine job of managing the Post Exchange, which is the most modern and newest one in Berlin. As manager, T/4 Bush supervises the sales personnel, show case displays and numerous other details which combine to make an efficient and smoothly operated sales store.

Prior to her army service, T/4 Bush worked in a defense plant.

She is presently assigned as manager of the Post Exchange for the Office of Military Government for Germany (US).

Apr 4 1946