

Baracs Kay, Joseph J.

REWARD FOR FINE WORK.

Joseph J. BaracsKay, seaman first class, U. S. N., of this city, and two buddies in the service were recently rewarded for excellent service "somewhere in the Pacific area" with a 16-day furlough. BaracsKay enlisted November 17, 1941. His two companions are M. Brice, chief machinist's mate, and J. J. Lancaster, coxswain. SEP 16 1942

Sep 16, 1942