

Kilcullen, Thomas

HEAR FROM SON.

JAN. 6 - 1943

"Love and best wishes for Christmas and a Happy New Year."

That was the contents of a cablegram received by Alderman and Mrs. John Kilcullen, 468 Vine Street, from their son, Sergeant Thomas Kilcullen, "somewhere in Africa."

He was a member of the Second Armored Division, one of the units that landed on the coast of Africa. In a letter to his parents, he stated that there was no excitement during he landing, but there was some on the following day.

He stated that he had a wonderful trip across the briny, and he and his "buddies" were in good spirits.
