

Polak, Joseph G.

Two Local Men Graduate

Word from the Naval training station at Bainbridge, Md., informs the Globe-Times of the successful completion of their courses there by Joseph G. Polak, of 1604 East Second Street, and Gordon G. Thomas, 816 Fernwood Street.

Polak has been advanced to the rating of seaman second class and has been selected to attend yeoman school at Newport, R. I., for further specialized training.

Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, has also been made a seaman second class and has been assigned to the radioman's school at Norton Heights, Conn. MAR 12 1943
