RUSSELL A. LERCH

ALBERT LERCH

Mr. and Mrs. William Lerch, whose son, George, was reported wounded in action a few weeks ago, received word of the promotion of their younger sons serving in the Marine Corps and U. S. Navy. Russell A. Lerch, air crewman on a PBM at Florida, was recently advanced to Radioman 3-c. Home on leave at present, he will leave for San Diego, Calif., in a few days. He completed his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. Another son, Albert Lerch, was promoted to Corporal in the Marine Corps at his Hawaiian Island base. He entered the service in April, 1943, and trained at Parris Island, S. C.; Camp LaJeune, N. C., and Camp Pendleton.
