

Cunningham, Francis V.

Becomes Bride Of Sergeant In Church Rite

APR 29 1944

In St. Ursula Church this morning at 9:30 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Anne Marie Toggart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Toggart of 613 Christian Street, and Sgt. Francis V. Cunningham, son of Mrs. Thomas Cunningham of 407 First Avenue, was solemnized at a nuptial mass. The Rev. William Cavanaugh officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in French lace over white satin, with a long veil of illusion and carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Miss Margaret Cunningham, her maid of honor, wore white satin with pale blue hyacinths in her hair. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Cullen, Mrs. John Kutos, Mrs. Michael Torpey were also gowned in white satin with violet, red and yellow hyacinths, respectively, in their hair. They all carried bouquets of similar flowers.

Robert Kohl was the bridegroom's best man and Joseph Willner, Richard Brady and Richard Kohl were ushers.

Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Sue Enright, who also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. William Longnecker. A reception followed in the Hotel Bethlehem.

The couple are both graduates of Bethlehem Catholic High School and Bethlehem Business College. The bride is employed in the purchasing department of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom has served with the Air Transport Command in Alaska for the past 15 months and is now home on a 21-day furlough. He will return to Alaska.
