

Motil, Joseph E.

Wounded

Wounded June 11 in France, Pfc. Joseph E. Motil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Motil, Hellertown R. D. 1, has returned to this country and is now recuperating in the Ashford Hospital, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. His wife, the former Goldie Konacs of 814 East Fifth Street, has just returned to Bethlehem after visiting her husband in West Virginia.

Pfc. Motil, who was recently awarded the Purple Heart for gallantry in action, was inducted January, 1942, and after training in New Jersey, Georgia and South Carolina, shipped overseas in January, 1943. A brother, Louis, is serving somewhere in Italy.
