

Kilcullen, Thomas J.

THOMAS KILCULLEN 8-20
WINS SERGEANT'S STRIPES

Thomas J. Kilcullen, son of Alderman and Mrs. John Kilcullen, 468 Vine Street, stationed somewhere in North Carolina on U. S. Army maneuvers, has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant, according to information received here by his parents late Wednesday afternoon.

Sergeant Kilcullen attended Bethlehem Catholic High School which he left for road employment with the Pennsylvania Highway Department. He later secured a position in the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company's Bethlehem office from which he was transferred to the company's New York office. He was a clerk in the latter office at the time of his induction into the army July 25, 1941.

He was made a corporal in June this year. His promotion to sergeant came this month, his parents said. 1942
