

Brisker, Nathaniel J.

Has New Rating

Lieut. (j.g.) Nathaniel J. Brisker, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Brisker, 538 Seneca Street, has been promoted to lieutenant, senior grade, in the U. S. Naval Reserves. He is assigned to San Diego Naval Aviation Ordnance Base. He was graduated from Liberty High School in 1935 and Lehigh University in 1940, receiving a B. S. degree. In 1941 he volunteered for a commission and received training at a Washington, D. C., gun factory. Upon graduation he was assigned to Naval Aviation Ordnance and stationed in Washington, D. C. He spent 14 months in Washington and then was sent to Naval Aviation Ordnance School at Jacksonville, Fla., for an additional 10-week indoctrination course. Lieut. Brisker was sent to San Diego upon graduation. His brother, Lieut. (j.g.) Sydney H. Brisker, recently returned from 18 months' service in the Pacific war theater and is now assigned to the Miami, Fla., base.
