

Herzeg, Julius L.

Cpl. Julius L. Herzeg
Released by Army

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa.—Ex-member of the star-patched Americal Infantry Division, Cpl. Julius L. Herzeg, 2067 West Broad Street, Bethlehem, has been discharged from the Army through the Indiantown Gap Separation Center.

A soldier of the Americal's 246th Field Artillery Battalion (Liaison Section), Cpl. Herzeg saw action in the Solomon Islands and the Philippines. His last station before returning to the United States was in Japan.

Cpl. Herzeg entered the Army in April, 1943, and served overseas from October of that year until his recent arrival back in the States. Prior to going overseas, he received training at Ft. Bragg, N. C., Camp Swift, Tex., and Fort Ord, Cal.

At the time of his entrance into the Army, Cpl. Herzeg was employed by Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Bethlehem.

DEC 12 1946

December 12, 1946