

Stevenson, Dean T.

Chaplain Home

AUG 21 1945

Captain Dean T. Stevenson, Pottsville, who at the time of his enlistment as an Army chaplain, was assistant minister at the Cathedral Church of the Nativity, here, has returned home, after serving overseas since 1944. He entered the Chaplain's Corps in 1941 and saw much active service. During one of his services in Italy, his congregation included members of the House Military Affairs Committee, General Mark Clark and other high ranking officers of the Fifth Army. Captain Stevenson is married to the former Doris Quier, 623 Third Avenue. They have one son, James Paul.
