

Fogg, Charles W.

MISS ANITA E. ROPER,
ENSIGN C. W. FOGG WED

7-21-1942
Marriage of Interest Locally
Solemnized Saturday Afternoon in Washington.

A wedding of interest in Bethlehem took place Saturday afternoon in Washington, D. C., when Miss Anita Evans Roper, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wesley Roper, of Marlboro County, S. C., was married to Ensign Charles Watson Fogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fogg, of Washington, formerly of this city. The ceremony was performed in the Sixth Presbyterian Church by the Rev. J. Herbert Garner.

Ferns and palms were banked at the altar and two large baskets of white gladioli flanking the lighted candles in the altar candelabra made a lovely setting for the five o'clock ceremony.

R. J. Ortmann, of Charleston, S. C., uncle of the bride, escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. She was gowned in white duchesse satin, with shirred bodice and yoke of chiffon outlined with imported Chantilly lace and a veil of illusion held by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of large white gladioli.

Mrs. Charles N. Major, of Richmond, Va., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was gowned in aqua lace with insets of organdy. She wore a coronet of Talisman roses matching her bouquet.

The bride's other attendants were Mrs. George Justin Fogg, of Birmingham, Ala., sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Harriet Jane Chambers, who served as junior bridesmaids. The former wore pink lace, with coronet and bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums, and the latter, yellow lace with coronet and bouquet of yellow roses and blue delphiniums.

George Justin Fogg was best man for his brother, and John William Unmack and James Carter, of Washington, and Thomas Wesley Chambers, of Louisville, Ky., were ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride after the ceremony, following which Ensign and Mrs. Fogg left for a wedding trip. On their return, they will make their home in Silver Springs, Md.

The bride is a niece of former Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper, who with Mrs. Roper attended the wedding. The bridegroom, who resided in Bethlehem for many years, while his father, Ralph Justin Fogg, was a professor of civil engineering at Lehigh University, is a graduate of Bethlehem High School, Class of 1935, and Duke University, Class of 1939.

COUPLE FROM ENGLAND
VISIT AT COOPERSBURG

July 21, 1942