

Williams, John C.

New Officer

John C. Williams, son of Chief Burgess and Mrs. J. Calvin Williams, 622 George Street, Pen Argyl, who recently was commissioned an ensign in the United States Naval Reserves at exercises in University of Virginia. Ensign Williams entered the Navy in July, 1943, and was sent to Drew University, Madison, N. J., in the Navy V-12 training program. In March, 1944, he was sent to the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va., in ROTC Unit. He recently spent a leave visiting his parents and reported to San Francisco, Calif. He is now in Seattle, Wash., awaiting ship assignment.

December 30, 1945