

Francis, Harold B.

Allentown Minister
Accepted For Navy Service

Rev. Harold B. Francis, 33, of Allentown, who has been employed in war defense work there for the past two years, was accepted for service with the U. S. Navy following his examination at the Allentown induction center yesterday.

The Rev. Mr. Francis has been in evangelistic work for more than ten years, having studied in California. His last charge was in Emmaus, serving there about one year ago.
