

Saeger, Tryon J.

Three Enter Navy Radio Training School

Learning to become sparks—Navy lingo for radio operators—are three Bethlehem men, who have been enrolled in the Naval Training School for radiomen at Miami University, Oxford, O. They will be stationed there 16 weeks during which they will receive training in the operation of Navy radio transmitting and receiving equipment. They were selected to attend the school upon the basis of a series of aptitude tests taken during recruit training. Upon graduation they will be eligible for promotion to petty officer ratings and be assigned to duty with the fleet or at shore stations. They are: Tryon Joseph Saeger, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Saeger, 1811 North Linden Street; Jay LaMarr Hinnerscheetz, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hinnerscheetz, 1430 Chelsea Avenue, and John Joseph Blatnik, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Blatnik, 1631 East Front Street. JUL 30 1943

Jul. 30, 1943