

Glass, Alexander J.

County Board No. 3 Sends 101 To Service

DEC 22 1943

One hundred and one men, 75 of whom came from Northampton County Selective Service Board No. 3, Nazareth, were accepted by the Army, Navy and Marine Corps at the Allentown Induction Center on Tuesday night.

The Army contingent, most of whom were from Bethlehem, follows: Alexander J. Glass, Wilhelm H. Knecht, Joseph F. Nocek, James Petrovich, Charles E. Raudenbush, Jr., Bryan L. Arnold, John J. Czik, Arlington D. Frantz, John Musike, Martin A. Talpas, Earl E. Siegfried, Jacob A. Simons, Clair A. Fehr, Sr., Austin N. Cook, Stanley R. Werkheiser, Charles W. Reiss.

Robert W. Dollinger, Ellwood H. Lehr, Walter P. Kilareski, Warren G. Wilson, Elmer W. Krock, Edwin H. Roeder, Steven Hari, Jr., Kenneth F. Reppert, Fred W. H. Bruch, Joseph F. Chiz, Kenneth F. Young, George J. Bok, Charles Hrichak, Ernest Duh, Frank Zrinski, Thomas J. Sutliff, Frank J. Wentzel, Walter D. Bauder, William Toth, Michael Glosan, Franklin D. Becker, Preston J. Ervin Sr., William A. Apple, Emmanuel A. Korn, Edward D. Becker, Morris H. Altomose and William E. Zimpfer.

This group is scheduled to report at the reception center at New Cumberland Jan. 1.

The Navy took Frank Banfy, Jr., Leon A. Brown, John J. Matthews, Elmer I. Troxell, Norman W. Granda, Michael J. Tapajcik, Stephen Machkow, Elmer E. Fretz, Russell A. Lily, Leo M. Mataitis, Darwin M. Gross, Samuel E. Merola, Gerald C. Strunk, Leonard J. Donnelly, Kermit K. Shook, Andrew J. Rampulla, Granville J. Strauss, George W. Geiger, Calvert E. Unangst, Jr., Ralph W. Fry, Michael J. Buchvalt, William J. Lukacs, Newton J. Moyer, Herman H. Borger, John J. Riccaboni, James W. Reiser, James M. Hildebrandt, Paul F. Kovach, Woodrow W. Frantz and Clayton S. Young.

Two Bethlehem men, Alfred B. Lakics and William A. Szabo, were accepted by the Marines.

Dec. 22, 1943