

Warren, Willie W.

Recruiter Retires
After 25 Years

1946
T/Sgt. Willie W. Warren, for the past six months in charge of the local Army recruiting office, is retiring after 25 years of service with the Army. He will return to his home in Indiana.

Warren served three years overseas with the famed Fifth Division before taking over the local post in Room 201, South Side Post Office. He will be succeeded locally by S./Sgt. George R. Haste.
