

Lehr, Anne

30 1943 Local WAVE At Work

Miss Anne Lehr shown before a teletype machine in the New York Office of Public Relations of the United States Navy.
—Official U. S. Navy photograph

Local WAVE is Model for Navy Poster

Miss Anne Lehr, yeoman third class WAVES, U. S. Navy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ellis Lehr, 1522 West North st., appears on the new Navy recruiting poster, released recently by the Office of Public Relations, U. S. N.

With Miss Virginia Gundacker of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Lehr posed for McClellan Barclay, famous artist, who is now a lieutenant commander in the U. S. N. R. and who designed and drew the new poster.

The local WAVES enlisted in October, 1942 and received her indoctrination at Stillwater, Okla. She was then assigned to the office of Public Relations in New York City, where she is located at the present time. She assists in recruiting and various phases of public relations work.

Miss Lehr is a graduate of Liberty High School and the Moravian College for Women. Prior to enlisting she was in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

March 30, 1943